

Fernandez to be Recognized at Conexx Gala

Jorge Fernandez, former VP, Global Commerce for the Metro Atlanta Chamber of Commerce, and now Pendleton Group Consultant, will be honored at the Conexx Gala, along with Oded Shorer, Director of Economy & Trade for the Consulate General of Israel, May 21, 2018.

Jorge has travelled to Israel multiple times on Conexx expeditions and to overseas conferences with the goal of furthering metro Atlanta's reputation in Israel and to bring Israeli companies to metro Atlanta area.

He has met with more than 100 Israeli companies, including Landa Printing, Itamar Medical and Ironscales. And he played a significant role in the establishment of the GCMI & Rambam Biomedical Digital Health Innovation Center.

Tickets to the dinner and rewards reception honoring these two men, who have made such a difference in the community are available now at www.conexxgala.com.
